

MISS ADA BROWNRIGG.

Miss Ada Brownrigg is one of the youngest actresses at the Savoy, whose earnestness and sincerity in the acting of minor parts gives promise of a great future. Both in appearance and acting, she is said to be very much like the late Adelaide Neilson, when at the beginning of her fame.

We publish this week the four leading beautiful women of the London Stage. The city of London has a population of four million, about three times as much as the whole state of Texas. It occupies a space as large as Tarrant County. It has been said that there is more money in Lombard street, London, than there is in the balance of the world.

MISS ELLEN PAYNE.

Miss Ellen Payne is an actress of the emotional order who has frequently electrified the audiences of Sadler's Wells Theatre. Possessing a profile of clear purity and large, liquid brown eyes, she is full of much spirit, and has given to many plays like "The World the Turnip" that has carried them successfully over hundreds of performances on both continents.

MISS FLORENCE ST. JOHN.

Miss Florence St. John, it may be well to say, is not related to the Prohibition Candidate. Her name, indeed, is pronounced by the unfathomable Brits "sin-jen," much on the same principle as Chalmersley is pronounced "cham-lee." As a singer and actress she is a great favorite, from John O'Grady to the Land's End. Her first public appearance was made at the age of eight, when she sang at a charity concert. In 17 months, her success on this occasion decided her career, and four years afterwards she was sent to London to study for the musical profession.

OVER THE BORDER.

An Excursion To-Day.

Special to the Gazette.

MATAMORAS, TEX., Sept. 13.—There will be a big excursion to-morrow
over the M. & M. railroad to Marillo, where a match game of ball will be played by the Kennedy nine of Brownville and the Union of this city. A big crowd is expected to go.

Great preparations are making for the national celebration on the 16th.
Speeches will be made and salutes fired. There will be a band playing and a general holiday.
